On 09/07/2019, Jesus ABUNDIS-Galvan was observed driving a Volkswagen Jetta in the area of Florencia Drive. A Cameron County Sheriff's Office deputy noticed that the Jetta was being followed in tandem by a black Jeep Grand Cherokee. The deputy initiated a traffic stop on the Jetta for violation of Texas traffic law and the Grand Cherokee stopped nearby. A consensual encounter with the driver of the Grand Cherokee was conducted and the driver was identified as Ricardo WALL-Carasco. A K9 conducted an open-air sniff on the Jetta and alerted to the trunk area. A search of the trunk area revealed 80 bricks, totaling 83.5 kilograms, of cocaine concealed within.

During his interview, WALL-Carasco admitted that he was following the Jetta as a "lookout", and that he was aware that there were narcotics concealed within the vehicle.

During his interview, ABUNDIS-Galvan stated that he was contacted to pick up the cocaine from a residence and transport it to a secondary, unknown location in the Brownsville area.
